3. How to Read & Study The Bible

As a Christian, we read and study the Bible. Different people adopt different methods of reading and studying the Bible. Have you ever wondered if there is a systematic way to read and study the Bible to help you grow and know God more intimately?

Sign up for this course where you can learn to study the Bible as a community. The class trainers are Mr Chow Tat Keong & Mr Aaron Chua from the Discipleship & Nurture Ministry.

Dates: 23 Apr & 30 Apr 2024 (Tuesdays)

Time: 7:30pm–9:30pm

Venue: Rev TC Nga Hall (Level 4)
(Minimum number for class to commence: 10 pax. Maximum number: 20 pax)

To register, go to faithmc.sg/event/readbible/
by 18 Apr 2024

4. Journey with Jesus

Have you visited Journey with Jesus? This is the last week! Don't miss the opportunity to spend time in meditative prayer, reflecting on key events from Jesus' journey to the cross.

Some stations will have activities or visuals to guide you in understanding our sins and how we should feel in response to what Jesus has done for us. The stations seek to engage our senses and our emotions and to lead us into a deeper faith experience of Jesus' sacrificial love for us. It is for us to connect in prayer with Him as we begin the journey and as we end at the last Station.

Journey with Jesus (JWJ) is available in English and Mandarin. Watch and share our JWJ reel here@ tinyurl.com/FMCJWJ

Dates: Until 23 Mar 2024 (closed on Thursdays and Sundays)

Time: 12pm–9.30pm, Last entry at 8.30pm;

Venue: Rev TC Nga Hall (Level 4)

*No pre-registration needed. Hurry!
Come visit before JWJ closes.*

3. Be Alert to Scams

A scam is designed to trick you into giving away your money, personal details or data by offering an attractive deal or false information. The top scams in the recent months are:

1. E-Commerce scam
2. Job scam
3. Investment scam
4. Phishing scam
5. Fake friend call scam

The best way to protect yourself from scams is to learn how to recognise the signs.

Here are the five main scam signs:

01. TEMPTING OFFERS

You see offers that are way below market or at inconceivable rates

02. UNEXPECTED FRIEND REQUESTS

You get an online friend request from an unknown person.

03. PAY BY GIFT CARDS OR CREDIT

You are asked to pay for service with gift cards or shopping credits.

04. URGENT MONEY TRANSFERS

You are asked to make urgent funds transfers.

05. OTP REQUESTS

You are asked to reveal your One-Time Passwords (OTPs).

Protect yourself by using ACT-

Add the ScamShield app and other security features so you are less likely to fall victim to scams.

Check for scam signs and with official sources. You can also verify with people you trust whenever you are in doubt.

Tell authorities if you encounter scams and share the latest scam alerts with friends and family.

If you have fallen prey to a scam, report to your bank and file a police report. You can also report scam calls and messages you receive via the ScamShield app. Be particularly mindful of those who may be more vulnerable to scammers, such as friends or family seeking companionship, jobs, offers, or investments.

If at Church, you are approached by anyone who wants to borrow money, please refer them to our church office or call the church at 6471 9420 during office hours.

4. Holy Week Services @ TPMC (by MCS)

The Holy Week services are scheduled from 25 – 27 March (Monday to Wednesday) and will be held at Toa Payoh Methodist Church from 8.00 p.m. nightly. Bishop will be sharing from Isaiah 56 – 58 in English, and Mandarin translations are provided.

You are encouraged to attend in person. Alternatively, livestream is also available via methodist.org.sg/holyweek2024

5. Attic Library Promotion

Library Promotion – Easter This March, the Library has curated a special selection of books which will guide you during this Lent season as you reflect upon Jesus' ministry, sacrifice and love for us. Learn more about the significance of Lent, the road to the Cross, and how we can prepare our hearts as we celebrate Easter and the joy of Jesus' resurrection.

We have good resources which will help in your discipleship journey, so come and check out the eLibrary and physical Libraries at CW and ACJC. Library membership is free, and you can sign up physically at the Attic Library or online @ <https://tinyurl.com/fmcclibrary>

Or scan this QR code:

6. March issue of Methodist Message online

If you did not get a copy of the Methodist Message, you can still read the stories online here: www.methodist.org.sg/message
